

All the pieces are either on the website or in the Finale Book except Rosin the Beau which is in the Circle of Harps book. If anyone doesn't have that book and needs this music, please contact Judy. I added "Goey Knees" because that was the piece that brought one of our members back after a hiatus and because we play it so well. We will come up with playing guidelines and tempos at the March meeting.

Suggested play list for April 28th program:

Fingal's Cave
Rosin the Beau
O'Carolan's Quarrel/Fanny Power
Danny Boy
Simple Gifts
Planxty George/Katie Bairdie w/ London Bridges overlay
My Little Welsh Home/Avenging and Bright
Mango Walk
Eamonn A Chnoic
Star of County Down
Shearin's No For You
"Goey Knees"
Greensleeves
Skye Boat Song
Chanter/La Rotta

encore? should be something the people will recognize and maybe sing along with - Holly suggested Parting Glass/Auld Lang Syne but that is typically a New Year's song. We could do Aura Lee - we did that last spring. Or Coral Bells - we haven't played that for a couple of years, but it is easy. Or we could go out with a bang and do Lisdoonvarna/Morrison's Jig. Ideas?
